LET'S LEARN SOME ARABIC

English is widely spoken in Dubai, but it's polite to try a few words in Arabic, the official language of the UAE. You'll probably see "Ahan wa sahan li Dubai" (Welcome to Dubai) when you first arrive, but why not try some basic conversation.

Sabah akhrah.
Good morning

As-salaam Alaikum. Kayf Halik?
Hello. How are you?

Ana Bikhayr. Hal yumnuk
mushadid rak an?
I'm fine. Can you help me please?

Ayn yumnukny Shira tadhakir metico Dubai?
Where can I buy tickets for the Dubai Metro?

Tatawafar al bitaqat fi mahabat
al metro wa al supermarket fi al madina.
They are available at metro stations and supermarkets.

Shukran, masalamah!
Thank you, bye!

GETTING AROUND

DUBAI METRO
With stations at key landmarks, the Dubai Metro presents an easy, efficient way to explore the city.

TRAM
Serving key areas in new Dubai, the Dubai Tram links the Dubai Metro and the Palm Jumeirah Monorail.

BUS
The public bus network covers most of the city, with several routes linking to metro stations and other emirates.

TAXIS
Dubai taxis are available 24/7 across the city. There are also special needs and ladies-only taxis.

DUBAI FERRY & WATER TAXIS
With world-class marine solutions and modern facilities, explore Dubai's top sights from the water.

NOL CARD
Buy a Nol e-ticketing public transport card from your nearest metro station, supermarket or convenience store.

THE ESSENTIALS

Currency
The UAE currency is the dirham (AED/Dh). USD1 = AED3.67

Visas
Citizens of 50+ countries are eligible for visa on arrival, while GCC nationals enjoy visa-free entry to the UAE.

Stay Connected
Electricity: Power supply is 220/240 volts. Sockets are compatible with UK standard three-pin plugs. For US equipment, use a 220V to 110V transformer.

Phone and Wi-Fi
The country code for the UAE is +971. Tourists get a free prepaid sim card from telecom operators at the airport, while free Wi-Fi is widely available across the city - even on the beach.

Health
If you are travelling with prescribed medication, bring your doctor's note with you. The Rashid, Latifa and Dubai Hospitals offer free emergency services.

Weather
Enjoy year-round sunshine in Dubai. Average temperatures are around 41°C in summer and 22°C in winter.
