OUR TRADITIONS

Arabian culture

Dubai's famed hospitality stems from our inherent values of integrity and respect. Islam is the official religion here, and it plays a significant role in the city's culture. Pay a visit to Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum Centre for Cultural Understanding (SMCCU) in the heart of old Dubai to learn more about our customs and traditions.

National dress

Women

Emirati women wear a long, loose black coat called an abaya over their clothes and cover their hair with a headscarf (hijab) for cultural purposes.

Some women also choose to wear a face veil known as a niqab, or a traditional face mask worn over the nose known as a burqa'a.

Men

Men wear a long tunic known as a kandoora, often with open-toed leather sandals.

The ghutra head-dress may also be worn, which was originally used to protect the face from the desert environment. The black rope that sits on top of the ghutra is called an agal.

Did you know?

There are more than 200 nationalities living and working in the UAE

Dubai demystified

ISN'T IT REALLY EXPENSIVE?

Dubai caters to all budgets with affordable hotels, restaurants and activities, and free parks and beaches

IS ALCOHOL AVAILABLE?

Non-Muslim adults aged 21 and over can drink alcohol in licensed hotels, establishments and restaurants across Dubai

CAN WOMEN DRIVE THERE?

Our culture holds women in very high regard. Both men and women can drive in Dubai to their hearts' content

IS IT OKAY TO HOLD HANDS?

Yes, but visitors are advised to refrain from dramatic displays of affection while in public

What can I wear?

Dubai is a cosmopolitan city that is a melting pot of diverse cultures and religious faiths. All attires are generally acceptable, although there are a few general guidelines to follow:

Swimwear is fine while at the beach and pool, but not appropriate in areas such as business districts and shopping malls.

When you're out and about, especially in summer, make sure you are protected from the sun.

It is advisable to dress conservatively when visiting historical areas and cultural sites.
